KEVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING FEBRUARY 28TH, 1856.

Since our review of Wednesday last, business generally as been dull, and as may be seen from our review below, prices of provisions have receded somewhat under the late oreign advices. Naval Stores have ruled quiet ;- Tar and about the same, and Common Rosin is unsteady. Cotton is firm under the advices, and sales are quick. Corn and Flour are in better supply, and are dall at a decline. Bacon is also dull, and both N. C. and Western cured have gone down to dull the dull that the dull the du and the stock in store has become very low; arrivals, how- Salt-Liverpool, (Sack)$1 65 @ $1 75.

diate wants. One or two small droves rece ved and sold at 6 @ 8 cents & tb., as in quality ;-for an extra article a higher price could be obtained. COFFEE-The receipts continue small, and the supply in store has been very much reduced. The only sale worthy of note was on Tuesday of 100 bags Rio at 121 cents & tb., 90 days—being a shade advance. We refer to our table for store rates, as in quantity and quality.

Corron-There is no material alteration to notice in this article. The receipts during the past week have been small, and in consequence we have but few transactions to report. There seems to be a firme: feeling in the market small lot changed hands at I cent advance. The sales have been confined to small parcels on Saturday at 9 @ 9 cents sented for payment at the end of thirty days. for ordinary to middling, and 9% cents for low to good mid-
